Dear

Thank you for your letter dated I must draw your attention to what the Law actually says regarding a promissory note:

Lord Denning decreed on the 10th October 1969, in the case of Fielding & Platt Vs Selim Najar

"We have repeatedly said in this court that a bill of exchange or a Promissory Note is to be treated as cash. It is to be honoured unless there is some good reason to the contrary." The principle is that a bill, cheque or note is given and taken in payment as so much cash, and not as merely given a right of action for the creditor to litigate a counterclaim (see Jackson v Murphy [1887] 4 T.L.R. 92).

First of all it is important to remember that the Bills of Exchange Act 1882 (and subsequent statutes) consider a Promissory Note to be the same thing as "cash", meaning that in the eyes of the Law, I have paid in cash. The tracking number I have shows a signature on delivery, which proves you have been paid.

I would also like to draw your attention to the fact that for the last 4 years I have been paying ALL my Bills this way, because it is the law.

Although I understand that you may not be familiar with this type of payment, let me assure you that your supervisor/line manager will be familiar with this type of payment and able to process it for you.

I would be grateful if you could send me a receipt for payment within the next 14 days.

We have a website that explains all this in minute detail, and also where the people who worked in the 'Ivory Tower' of your industry all went over the last 6+ years..... it's a question that every sector of society has been asking, but no one seems to know.

The sectors with the emptiest office spaces are in:

The Judiciary, Policing, Finance, Education, Big Pharma, NHS, CAFCASS & Social Services.

The Offices are empty because they have been removed from duty/service, for a long list of crimes, FRAUD is just one of them,

We know exactly what's going on; you can bring yourselves up to speed right here:

There is a 'Common Law' tab on the main menu (Under the "Synopsis")

Many thanks & Kind regards
