

POLICE

Unless you have stopped me because you are in need of assistance i.e. you have a puncture in your vehicle tyre? or maybe you are lost & need directions?

If you do not need my assistance, then be aware that you have stopped me Unlawfully.

If you DON'T know why that is, that is your problem because “Ignorance of the Law is no excuse”.

Make it known NOW if you need my assistance?

If you do not need my assistance, understand that I will NOT physically speak, or communicate with you in any way whatsoever, for ANY reason.

I will ONLY physically speak to your immediate senior/supervisor or whoever is above them, in person.

If your senior/superior is in the vehicle with you, then by their proximity to this unlawful Stop, they are in tacit agreement with YOUR actions at this time, therefore implicating themselves in this incident - therefore I will need to see their senior instead.

Any attempt to gain access to this vehicle will be Criminal Damage / Breaking & Entering, and any attempt to remove me from this vehicle, your charges will be Assault / Kidnap.

You can get your supervisor/senior/superior here now & I will wait as long as it takes, oryou are dismissed.

My fee schedule is on the reverse of this Lawful Notice.

My first 15 minutes are Free
